Excerpt: .was repeated twice, ere it reached his ear. Shall my cab take you home, or which way were you going? To--to--Letrille s, replied the Genius abruptly. Whew.!-- ejaculated Fullarton, in his blithest tone;-- One of us! well, I shall go in, and finish my hundred and my bottle, and find my way there, too, by-and-bye; --and Fullarton disappeared. Good evening, my lord, said Robert, not knowing how else to quit the illustrious magnifico, who still remained standing before him his usual vacancy, as has been said, strangely disturbed by that rare guest--an idea. A--a. you are going to Letrille s! I will walk that way myself. The night s splendid. Perhaps you will wait till they bring me my hat, and in another instant the Genius, for whom the wonders of the night seemed to have no end, was loitering down St. James s Street, by...
