H. A. Bruce, Home Secretary of State Dear Sir, - I respectfully dedicate this pamphlet to you. Many reasons, both public and private, induce me to do so. Some of these I now purpose to record. Your excellent and honoured father, being long destitute of health, sought it in vain during a period of 30 years, by consulting many of the highest medical authorities in Europe. Most fortunately for him, and the world, he at last discovered a successful method of curing himself. Born of a high aristocratic family in the North of Scotland, and receiving a college education fitted to his position, he could not be regarded as an ignorant empiricist; but, contrariwise, as one who would carefully and intelligently study any remedial course he adopted for his own personal benefit. Nor after so many years of extreme suffering, could he be mistaken regarding...
