No binding. Book Condition: New. The study of Sanskrit grammar is widely recognized as one of India's great intellectual traditions. The most famous school of grammar was the one based on Pāṇini's Aśādhya, a work dating from perhaps the fifth or fourth century BC and consisting of approximately four thousand short rules arranged in eight books. Over two millennia scholars produced a huge literature of commentaries to explain how these rules work. Alternative schools were also developed, either to provide...
