The Teatarian: A Belief in Economic and Social Freedom (Paperback)

By T L Crain

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Teatarian is someone who seeks the most liberty as possible with the least government as possible. We see the need for government, but believe it should be kept as close to home as common sense allows. Find out why government felt the need to insert itself in something as personal as marriage. Discover how laws banning marijuana and other drugs came into existence. The world of economics can sometimes be confusing, but when broken down to Chickens, Cows, and Money, it becomes a lot simpler. Ever heard of rehypothecation? Most people haven't, but it's important to our future. Do you know where the Pledge of Allegiance to the US flag came from? You might be surprised by its origin. Do you know there was more than one copy of the Gettysburg Address? Learn about the Freedom Tax that can eliminate the IRS and limit federal power. Learn all of this in The Teatarian, a compilation of past articles and new material.
