She lives in great hopes that some change in her favour will take place in January, but I much doubt it. Father and daughter are not on a very comfortable footing, and the last time she saw him there was not a word spoken. In another letter to the same lady, a few weeks later, the Princess of Wales again refers to the household of her daughter: --Concerning the intended establishment for Princess Charlotte, it is a mere newspaper invention; there is no doubt that all parties are anxious that Miss Knight should leave Princess Charlotte except herself, and under that pretence she will have a Lady of the Bedchamber instead of her. Ministers are anxious Lady should have that place; the Regent is anxious to place Miss there; and Parliament...
