Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jacob Blake is a forty year old, single, narcissistic, womanizer, with a great job, no woman or children to complicate his partying lifestyle; life is simple and the world is his oyster. That was yesterday.now he is unemployed and everything he thought he knew, turns out to be a lie. The company he worked for, Garrisons and Sons, now seized by the government because of a PONZI scheme, has shut its doors. After fifteen years as one of their top accountants, his life seems to have come to an abrupt halt. At least in his mind. After a couple of weeks of doing nothing but feeling sorry himself, Jake realizes he needs to quit the pity party (not the kind he was used to attending) and get himself motivated again. Showered, shaved, and stomach hungry, Jake decides to visit an old restaurant he hadn t eaten in for over a year. A place he remembered fondly for its grease laden fare and an extremely buxom blonde; both of which he found appetizing after a hard night of partying. To his delight, the food was the same, but to his disappointment, the woman with the cleavage no longer worked there. The stupidity of marriage and having a child had taken her away. He disliked children, but disliked the idea of love or marriage even more. He now had to settle for a young, skinny, albeit slightly cute, waitress. She was friendly, but more talkative than Jake normally tolerated, although he found himself not minding her chatter. Along with meeting Gina, the waitress, he is approached by Bob Mason, an elderly, disheveled man that smelled as if he had used...
