On the Death of President Lincoln Know ye not that there is a Prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? 2 Samuel III, 38. These are the words of David, and refer to the assassination of Abner, the captain of the armies of Israel, under the house of Saul. The king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth? Thy hands were not bound nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man fallest before wicked men, so fellest thou. And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept. And the king said unto his servants: Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? The words of David apply to us with greater force than they did to the Elders of Judah. Tis not for a subordinate we mourn, but for our chief magistrate struck down by a treacherous assassin. Yes! Fellow-citizens we...
