At dinner the triplets mentioned what they had done (they were above-board little scamps, nothing underhanded about them!) and a history of the whole day followed. Papa Brownlee declared it was certainly the worst case of Kobolds they had ever had in the house. But Mamma Brownlee sighed, and said: It means three cases of mumps and ten days, more or less, of halfinvalid, grumpy children, a prospect that does not please me at all. And as for its being Kobolds! Its a plain case of crossness and contrariness. Every time you are cross and contrary, and things go wrong, dont go and blame it on poor, invisible, queer little people. Its just because you are impatient and irritable and all out of sorts. Every day like this brings its own reward of trouble, and some time youll be sorry you didnt get...
