A CARRA KING: AN INSPECTOR MATT MINOGUE MYSTERY (PAPERBACK)

Johnbradysbooks.com, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Old debts and the new booming Ireland make a deadly mixture. In the sixth of the Minogue series, the troubled son of an Irish-American tycoon is found bludgeoned to death in the trunk of a car at Dublin Airport. There s more at stake here than bad publicity for Ireland s vital tourist industry. The victim s father is the highly influential Irish-American tycoon John Leyne. A confusing account of the victim s itinerary suggests he s travelling with a woman, and staying in lodgings in remote towns and villages. That female companion may be Aoife Hartnett, an archaeologist from the National Museum - but she can t be found. The trail peters out near the west coast. A pattern to their travels emerges: the route takes in sites where Aoife Hartnett worked. Two of those sites have had thefts in the past five years. Is it a coincidence that one of John Leyne s passions in recent years has been the collection of antiquities? A body is found in a shallow grave near an historical excavation site. Travelling back to his ancestral homeland brought this man not the glory he hoped, but a brutal end. Magically, Brady s writing makes it dense and multi-layered. A treasure of a crime novel. - Toronto Star Brady s sixth novel is his best. Melodic, densely plotted, taking us from the Stone Age to New Age, Brady has a great eye for detail. Save it to savour. - Globe and Mail (Canada).
